

Calling Former Sunderland Shipyard Workers

3 June 2009

National Glass Centre are currently looking for former Sunderland shipyard workers to come to NGC to record their stories and memories.

Why The stories and memories will then form part of National Glass Centre's RIVERSCAPE Exhibition which celebrates the history and future of the River Wear, giving visitors and young people alike an opportunity to learn about the history of Sunderland. The stories will also become part of Tyne and Wear Archives and Museum's collection for visitors and future generations to learn about Sunderland's history.

As well as getting to chance to share your stories and memories with us, you will also be able to meet others with stories and memories to share.

When The sessions will take place on Thursday 18th, Tuesday 23rd, Thursday 25th and Friday 26th of June 2009 at National Glass Centre, Sunderland. It is important that those taking part in the project can attend of these dates.

If any want to find out more Contact Alison Cleland, National Glass Centre's Creative Producer of Education and Audiences.

Alison Cleland, Creative Producer: Education & Audiences
NATIONAL GLASS CENTRE, Liberty Way, Sunderland, SR6 0GL
0191 515 5555 Alison.Cleland@nationalglasscentre.com www.nationalglasscentre.com